

? How might we get politicians to adopt strategies and laws for sustainability in tourism?

? How might we support people to feel like global citizens?

? How might we get people to think about tourism's contribution to climate change?

? How might we make working in tourism attractive and meaningful?

? How might we travel in such a way that our vacation contributes positively to the quality of life and well-being of the population in the destination?

! Should a tourism fee of € 200 per day be introduced (as in Bhutan) to prevent overtourism?

! Should people be required to live and work in a different cultural environment for a year?

! Should no one be allowed to travel by own car anymore?

Should highly polluting vacations and pure pleasure trips (e. g. cruises) be banned?

Natural disasters are making most regions on earth uninhabitable. Less and less space is available for travel.

Should there be mandatory minimum lengths of stay for vacations – depending on the distance from home?

The world passport is introduced: All people can move equally around the world as they wish.

Overtourism leads to revolts among the local population. Radical groups are spreading.

TOURISM

Exploding energy prices lead to a tenfold increase in electricity, fuel and aviation gasoline prices.

TOURISM

There is a new conservation law: no more new infrastructure may be built that interferes with wildlife habitats. Wilderness must be restored every year and sealed soil must be returned to its natural state.

TOURISM

